Youth Theatre Workshop Ages 7-9 $325 Director: TBA

This two-week workshop is geared toward introducing and exploring the basics of theatre. Students will learn what it takes to put on a show using songs, dance, and storytelling taught by our professional theatre teaching artists at RMRT. This workshop is designed to offer age-appropriate vocal, acting, and dance coaching and will culminate with two performances friends and family will love! RMRT's Youth Theatre Workshop is sure to spark an interest in the arts for a lifetime!

Youth Theatre Production Ages 10-12 $350 Director: TBA

Lights, music, show time! This fast-paced, upbeat three-week program is devoted to producing a fully realized Broadway style musical. Led by our director and staff of RMRT professional company members, students will be guided through an immersive theatrical experience, learning audition techniques, rehearsal expectations and procedures, basic production design elements, and performance skills. This program encourages the continuing development of young performers through the use of the Actor's Toolbox of body, voice, and mind to explore exciting new worlds, engaging stories, and dynamic characters. This program culminates in two public performances on the RMRT stage! Production: TBA

Teen Theatre Academy Ages 13-18 $375 Director: TBA

This intensive three-week program focuses on developing the craft of a creative artist. We welcome teens with a variety of talents and interests in all artistic disciplines: actors, musicians, creative writers, poets, singers, dancers, visual artists, etc. Students work intensively in a highly collaborative environment to devise and create an original performance based on a single theme. Shows incorporate existing Broadway and popular music with student-written scenes, monologues, songs, and lyrics to construct an original, fully-realized theatrical production.
